Classic Creations Announces the Grand Opening of For a Cure Cards Personalized Awareness Stationery

Mooresville, NC—October 12—On October 15, 2007 Classic Creations, a local graphic design and stationery business will launch the grand opening of the For a Cure Cards web site. For a Cure Cards Personalized Awareness Stationery was established to help bring awareness and show support for many diseases that have touched us or someone we love in one way or another.

"We are on the brink of discovery when it comes to cancer, unfortunately funding for research is what holds us back from a cure," says For a Cure Cards founder Nola Cooper.

For a Cure* Cards offers Support and Funding

The For a Cure line was originated in 2002, as a part of the Classic Creations Direct domain. Now it will have its own home within the World Wide Web offering support, resources, awareness and services. One such service is the all new Send a Note For a Cure line. This new feature is especially beneficial for those who are in treatment or recovery, Classic Creations handles the writing and mails the note cards out for you, all you do is pick a ribbon color and personalize!

The majority of the proceeds from the Personalized Note Cards will be donated to many foundations throughout the United States to aid in funding disease research, education and awareness.

"I wanted For a Cure Cards to have its own place on the web to make it more than a place to get personalized note cards; I want it to be a resource of information and inspiration in the fight against disease" remarks Nola.
